From The Pastor's Desk...

Also Known as Chardonnay W(h)ines!

You have heard the expression “time flies when you are having fun” – well, 40 years of priesthood must have been lots of fun! On Sunday, October 10th I will celebrate my fortieth anniversary of ordination. On the cover of today's bulletin is an invitation to the celebration. I want to be sure that all parishioners of Our Lady of Mercy know they are welcome and invited to attend. While I will be preaching all our Masses the weekend of October 9/10, I will offer a Mass of Thanksgiving on Sunday at 2:00PM followed by an outdoor reception weather permitting or in the PLC. Also attending this Mass will be some of my family, priest friends, and parishioners from the previous seven parishes I have served before coming to Our Lady of Mercy. To prepare adequately for the reception, I need to know how many OLM parishioners plan to attend the 2:00pm Mass and reception. Please RSVP to me at: frdon@olmercy.com. I hope to see many of you there!

In today's Gospel, Jesus asks the question, “Who do people say that I am?” There is a great opportunity starting this week for you to find your own personal answer to Jesus' question. Fall ALPHA starts this Thursday, September 16th. If you have been searching, if you have questions, if you trying to find meaning in your life, then ALPHA is for you! ALPHA is on Thursday evenings starting with a meal at 6:30pm and runs for 11 weeks. There is no charge, just your time. Sign up online at www.olmercy.com/alpha or contact Zara in the parish office.

In light of Jesus' question in today's Gospel, a British writer in the 1800's once said: “Be careful how you live. You may be the only Bible a person ever reads!” Many people form their idea of who Jesus is by listening to what Jesus' followers say and watching what they do. Many years ago, a popular Christian song posed the question, “If you were arrested for being a Christian, would there be enough evidence to convict you?” Today's readings speak of the kinds of evidence to which true followers of Christ give witness. Faith AND action go hand in hand. What is one practical way you can make a difference this week in your family? In your school? In your workplace? In your neighborhood?

Have a blessed week!

Desde el Excritorio Del Pastor

¡También conocido como Chardonnay W(h)ines!

Han escuchado la expresión “el tiempo vuela cuando te diviertes”; bueno, ¡40 años de sacerdocio deben haber sido muy entretenidos! El domingo 10 de octubre celebraré mi cuadragésimo aniversario de ordenación.

En la portada del boletín de hoy hay una invitación a la celebración. Quiero estar seguro de que todos los feligreses de Our Lady of Mercy sepan que son bienvenidos e invitados a asistir. Mientras predicaré todas nuestras Misas el fin de semana del 9 al 10 de octubre, ofreceré una Misa de Acción de Gracias a las 2:00 p.m. seguida de una recepción al aire libre si el clima lo permite o en el PLC. También asistirán a esta Misa algunos de mis familiares, sacerdotes amigos y feligreses de las siete parroquias anteriores en las que he servido antes de venir a Our Lady of Mercy. Para prepararme adecuadamente para la recepción, necesito saber cuántos feligreses de OLM planean asistir a la Misa de las 2:00 p.m. y recepción. Por favor confírmeme su asistencia en: frdon@olmercy.com. ¡Espero ver a muchos de ustedes allí!

En el evangelio de hoy, Jesús hace la pregunta: “¿Quién dice la gente que soy yo?” Hay una gran oportunidad a partir de esta semana para que encuentres tu propia respuesta personal a la pregunta de Jesús. ALPHA del Otoño comienza este jueves 16 de septiembre. Si has estado buscando, si tienes preguntas, si estás tratando de encontrarle sentido a tu vida, entonces ¡ALPHA es para ti! ALPHA es los jueves por la noche comenzando con una comida a las 6:30 p.m. y dura 11 semanas. No hay ningún cobro, solo tu tiempo. Regístrate en línea en www.olmercy.com/alpha o comunícate con Zara en la oficina parroquial.

A la luz de la pregunta de Jesús en el Evangelio de hoy, un escritor británico en los 1800s dijo una vez: “Ten cuidado con tu forma de vivir. ¡Puede que seas la única Biblia que una persona lea!” Mucha gente se forma una idea de quién es Jesús al escuchar lo que dicen los seguidores de Jesús y observar lo que hacen. Hace muchos años, una canción Cristiana popular planteó la pregunta: “Si te arrestaran por ser Cristiano, ¿habría pruebas suficientes para condenarte?”. Las lecturas de hoy hablan del tipo de evidencia de la que dan testimonio los verdaderos seguidores de Cristo. La fe Y la acción van de la mano. ¿Cuál es una forma práctica de que hagas una diferencia esta semana en tu familia? ¿En tu escuela? ¿En tu lugar de trabajo? ¿En tu vecindario?

¡Que tengan una bendecida semana!

Padre Don

FAITHFUL

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

I think it can be easy to romanticize faith: the post-retreat high, the inspirational homily, even the motivational wall art that pops up on Pinterest. But keeping the faith can be hard sometimes. And living it out? Even harder. Today's readings both challenge and encourage us, as they so often do. The Letter of James pulls no punches: Faith without works is "dead." And in today's Gospel, right after Peter says, "You are the Christ," Jesus tempers that Good News, telling him that even the Son of Man must suffer greatly. We who follow Jesus must also be willing to take up our cross. This is a daily challenge to choose life over death; to choose the transformative power of Jesus over sin that creeps into our lives; to make the choice to put others' needs before our own. None of this is easy. But as the prophet Isaiah reminds us, we don't have to do it alone; indeed, the Lord God is our help. We can choose well.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

I'm inspired when the young people in our parish assist with the Sunday liturgy and do service projects in the community. As a working parent (and back when I was a "stay-at-home" mom), I tell myself, maybe someday when things slow down, I'll do more. But honestly, I think the teens in the youth group – between work, school, and sports – are busier than I am. As we listen to today's readings, wherever we may be in life and faith, what stands out? Is it James' entreaty to pair faith with works? Or Jesus' words that "whoever loses his life for my sake and that of the gospel will save it"? Or the prophet Isaiah's rock-solid faith? Today's readings give us many ways to witness to our faith in Jesus – through prayer, service, generosity, perseverance, works, and words. We can ask the Holy Spirit to show us which of these gifts we can share with others this week.

ACTIONS Brainstorm new ways to witness to your faith.

It could be as simple as picking up extra food for the pantry in the back of church or changing up "Grace" at dinner to add prayers for others.

Suicide Prevention Awareness Month

September is the month designated as a time to raise awareness on a stigmatized and often taboo topic – suicide. It is an opportunity to spread hope and vital information to people affected by suicide. There are resources available to discuss suicide prevention and to seek help when needed.

The following information is located on the Suicide Prevention Services of America website about suicide. Many suicides are preventable if people get the appropriate treatment. It is the second leading cause of death for 15 to 24 year olds and the second leading cause of death for 10 to 14 year olds. On average, one person dies by suicide every 16.2 minutes. Each suicide intimately affects at least six other people.

According to the Centers for Disease Control and the National Institute of Mental Health, suicide rates have increased by 35% since 1999. More than 48,000 lives were lost to suicide in 2018 alone. At first, suicidal ideation can begin small and over time, become more explicit and dangerous.

It is important to know warning signs of suicide: increased alcohol and drug use; aggressive behavior; withdrawal from friends, family and community; dramatic mood swings; impulsive or reckless behavior. Suicidal behaviors are a psychiatric emergency. Seek immediate help from a health care provider or call 911. If you are in a crisis or are experiencing difficult or suicidal thoughts, call the National Suicide Hotline at 1-800-273-8255. If a person is uncomfortable talking on the phone, text NAMI to 741-741 to be connected to a free, trained crisis counselor on the Crisis Text Line.

The Suicide Prevention Services of America located in Batavia IL has a website containing support and resource information at www.spsamerica.org. A resource is available created by NAMI so that people experiencing mental health emergencies and their loved ones can have answers and information they need when they need it: Navigating a Mental Health Crisis: A NAMI Resource Guide for Those Experiencing a Mental Health Emergency. This resource is at www.nami.org.

The Upper Room Crisis Hotline

If you are in need of support, the Upper Room Crisis Hotline is a faith-based hotline in the Catholic tradition at 1-888-808-8724 CT from 8am to 10pm Monday through Friday. The website is www.catholic hotline.org.

Open Hearts Ministry

If you or someone you know is in need of spiritual support or resources for mental and emotional health and wellness, you are invited to attend the next gathering of the Open Hearts Ministry on Monday, September 13 in Room 218 from 7:00 to 8:30pm. If you have questions about the ministry or would like to attend but cannot make the meeting, please contact Janice Hurtado Aeppli at olmopenhearts@yahoo.com.

Pastoral Care Services

Pastoral care is available for assistance with funeral planning, end-of-life decisions, navigating the health care system, medication and medical diagnosis management, support after the loss of a loved one, unable to come to church due to illness or mobility loss and spiritual care. You are not alone. Please reach out for pastoral by connecting with Jolene LeRoy RN Parish Nurse and Director of Pastoral Care at 331-707-5380 or at jolenel@olmercy.com.

Is there more to life?

Alpha gives everyone the opportunity to explore the meaning of life in a relaxed, friendly setting. The Alpha course usually meets once a week for 11 weeks, sometimes in a church, a home, or restaurant. Sessions begin with a meal, followed by a short talk, and time to discuss the topic. During the discussion, everyone is welcome to contribute their opinions and no question is considered hostile or too simple. Questions might include—Is there a God? Why am I here? Where did I come from? Where am I going?

Alpha is for everyone—no question is out of bounds and you are free to discuss as much or as little as you wish. We don't assume any background knowledge or belief in Christianity and everyone is welcome.

Meet and Support Father Don's Friend Ertha Papillon from Haiti at the Masses on 9/11 & 9/12 (This is a new date)

In the summer of 2014, Father Don traveled to the small village of Duchity in the mountains of southwest Haiti. It was there that he met Ertha Papillon, a leader in her faith community of Ste. Marie-Madeleine. Ertha is the founder and director of an orphanage and an elementary school. She has dedicated her life to serving the poorest of the poor in the countryside near Duchity. Ertha will return Father Don's visit and will speak at all the Masses. She will share her story and the story of the people she serves.

A collection will be taken to benefit the orphanage and the school. Checks can be made out to "Our Lady of Mercy" with "Haiti-Ertha" in the memo. Donations can also be made online from the Our Lady of Mercy website.

A promise from Ertha: "I am happy to visit you. We are all God's children. Please pray for me and the children of Haiti and I will pray for you."

First Friday Devotion - Sacred Heart of Jesus

Holy Hour - 10:30 am - 11:30 am, (prior to 1st Friday Noon Mass) Join us every first Friday as we offer Our Lord prayer and worship through the Blessed Sacrament, Jesus Christ Truly Present. Handouts available in English and Spanish. Viva Christo Rey! Únase a nosotros mientras ofrecemos al Señor oración y adoración a través del Santísimo Sacramento. Folletos disponibles en inglés y español.

First Saturday Devotion - Immaculate Heart of Mary

Following 8:30 Sacrifice of the Mass Join us every first Saturday, following 8:30 Mass, as we pray in community the prayers of Fatima. This devotion is one of the messages of Fatima, it stimulates the spirit of reparation; it instills a tender love for the Holy Sacraments of Confession and the Blessed Eucharist.
